SLOWER SCHEDULE FOR TRAINS WEST

Railway Officials Deny Action Is Result of Adverse Legislation—
Present Time Impossible.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, June 8.—New schedules under which the minimum time between Chicago and western points will be lengthened will be put into effect tomorrow by all of the railroads running west from this city. The new schedules are the result of several months of joint deliberation. The time for the fastest passenger trains between this city and Omaha will be increased two hours, that between this city and Kansas City will be increased one hour, and proportionate increases in the minimum running time will be made to nearly all other points. The time of the "limited" trains to Los Angeles will not be greatly affected, but the time between Chicago and San Francisco will be increased about four hours. The railroad officials deny that the putting on of slower trains is in retaliation for the action of the western legislatures in the cutting of rates. The officials declare that the schedules that have been in effect for the past year or more have been found too fast for economical operation. Last winter, on account of unusual weather conditions, few of the western roads were able to operate their trains according to schedule. In increasing the running time the managers are acting in the belief that it will be more satisfactory to have schedules which can be maintained, even if ordinary delays to trains are encountered, than to disconcert passengers by delivering them at their destination later than the schedule time in case of any delay en route.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY IS BEING HELD IN OKLAHOMA

Nominees Will Probably Be Elected Next August—Each Territory To Have One
United States Senator.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Guthrie, Okla., June 8.—The democratic primary is being held throughout the proposed state of Oklahoma today on nominations for all important state offices from governor down, and for United States senators and members of congress. The primary has nothing to do with the adoption of the new Constitution other than the nomination of officers to be elected under it. The general election date has been fixed by ordinance of the Constitutional convention at Aug. 8, which, if not changed, is the date for selection of a complement of state officers and ratification or rejection of the Constitution as well.

In the matter of United States senators they will be apportioned between the territories. Candidates from each territory having the highest vote in the total vote will be declared the nominee from that territory. The full list of nominations to be made for state officers is as follows: Governor, lieutenant governor, state treasurer, state superintendent, secretary of state, state auditor, justice of the supreme court, attorney general, clerk of the supreme court, state mine inspector, state examiner and inspector, commissioner of insurance, state charity commissioner, railroad commissioner and corporation commissioner, and state labor commissioner. The candidates for United States senator include Robert L. Owen of Muskogee, Roy V. Hoffman of Chandler, M. L. Turner of Oklahoma City, T. P. Gore of Lawton, and S. M. Ruth of Muskogee.

For governor the aspirants are Leo Grace of Ardmore, Charles N. Haskell of Muskogee and Thomas Doyle of Perry. George W. Bellamy of El Reno is a candidate for lieutenant governor.

Several candidates are in the field for all the other important places on the ticket. For railroad commissioner and corporation commissioner there are no fewer than thirteen candidates.

The campaign, especially for the senatorship and the gubernatorial nomination, has been a spirited one and an expensive one as well. It is estimated that a total of nearly 1,000,000 has been expended by the various candidates, the bulk of it having been put up by four of the senatorial candidates and by one or two of the candidates for the gubernatorial nomination. The assessment of the democratic state committee for the purpose of paying the expenses of the primary netted $14,500, the senatorial candidates paying $5,250, the three gubernatorial candidates $1,125, and the forty-four other candidates $7,875.

Karlsruhe, Germany, June 8.—Karl Hau, who has been under arrest here for some time, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Frau Molter, at Baden Baden, in November last, confessed today that he is guilty of the crime. HAYWOOD TRIAL IS RESUMED AT 9:30

Harry Orchard is Still on the Stand Giving His Testimony.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Boise, Idaho, June 8.—The Haywood trial was resumed at 9:30 this morning with Harry Orchard still under cross examination.

Attorney Richardson lead Orchard through every detail of the first attempt on the life of Governor Peabody and the killing of Detective Gregory, at Denver, seeking to involve the witness in doubt. Some discrepancies developed but in main Orchard adhered stoutly to his original testimony and warily avoided serious contradictions. The defense sought to lay a foundation for showing that Simpkins, because he was in the Idaho "bull pen" and Orchard, because driven out of Idaho and forced to sell his interest in Hercules mine, which later became very valuable, had a deep-seated private grudge against Steunberger.

At several points the defense killed the foundation for controversies of Orchard's testimony when his side is reached. The court adjourned until Monday with Orchard still on the stand.

I had constant pain in the joints and I felt so generally weak and run-down that I often felt that I could not keep up. I used liniments and other remedies that did not help me, and finally, seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended in our papers, I sent to the People's Drug Co., got a box and began using them. A few doses were sufficient to rid me of the pain and I continued taking the remedy until entirely cured. My son found the same satisfaction in using them for bladder-trouble as he has been entirely free from it since using Doan's Kidney Pills."

ROCK COUNTY'S
ANTIQUARIANS
HEADED SOUTH

H. L. SKAVLEM WILL TELL HIS ARCHEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
ABOUT PREHISTORIC
MOUNDS OF KOSH-
KONONG.

AT BELOIT NEXT SATURDAY

Prof. Frederick Starr, Congo Explorer, and Dr. Stephen D. Peet Will Also Speak—L. H. Riggs to Sing Indian Songs.

Why should any American, particularly a Wisconsin resident, concern himself with the mystery of the pyramids or the riddle of the Sphinx when close at hand, perhaps in his very dooryard, the strange and often marvellous earthworks of prehistoric peoples who lived and loved and fought and died amid the same natural scenes wherein he moves, lured and challenged him on every hand? Who were the mound-builders and what was the meaning and purpose of those gigantic soil edifices of birds and animals which they raised with wondrous skill and patience and years of toil within the boundaries of Wisconsin and to a certain extent within these boundaries only? When it shall have been established by research work, now only in infancy, that these so-called mound-builders were none other than the Winnebago branch of the Dakota or Sioux family, known to the first French adventurers who reached this state from the north during the early quarter of the seventeenth century, as well as the pioneers who came in from the southward with the tide of immigration which followed the Blackhawk War, only one question will have been answered. Underlying it is the whole problem of the origin and differentiation of the human race.

If all mankind sprang from one center and that in the old world, then there is plausible ground for conjecture that the new world was populated at the dawn of the Christian era or ages before by shipwrecked crews from China, or the coast of Africa, or wandering exiles from Siberia or all three, and that the trend of human migration was eastward, long before it began to follow the setting sun.

The Indians known to the present generation have lost nearly all of the traditions which confront the man who picks up an axe or arrow point of stone or ploughs up bones and broken pottery and copper implements in an innocent looking hillock which he had therefore remarked only as strangely symmetrical in its contour, but the weapons and ornaments, themselves, may come to tell a story quite as vital as those deciphered from the Egyptian hieroglyphics to the one who cures to study, exchange information, and compare.

The Wisconsin Archeological Society was formed several years ago for organized and systematic research work. Halvor L. Skavlem of Janesville has been one of the most active members in this section and at the Third State Assembly, which is to be held at Beloit College on Saturday, June 15, he will give a short illustrated lecture on some of the 457 mounds which he and others have surveyed in the Lake Koshkonong region. The great majority of these are the round, burial mounds, but he has measured and recorded 12 great birds, 9 turtles, 8 panthers, 2 muskrats, 3 fishes, 1 wolf, 1 cat, 1 squirrel, and 3 frogs. Many of these were so large and so thickly covered with trees and undergrowth that it was impossible to even guess the fantastic designs until, with the exact measurements, recorded and diagrammed on paper, they suddenly flashed forth like a negative from the developer of the softlute and eerie light of the dark-room.

Rock County Members.
But Mr. Skavlem has not been permitted to pursue alone these delightful little expeditions into the Great Unknown Country of the Past. Some of the other Janesville and Rock county members of the society are: Horace McElroy, Charles Weirick, Fred Clemons, Francis Grant, Harry Ranous, Archie Reid, Jr., Judge George Gihm, Frank P. Starr, William McVicar, Dr. R. J. Hart, Jens Naset, Cornelius Buckley, I. F. Wortendyke, M. P. Richardson, Henry P. Carpenter, James Scott, Dr. S. B. Buckmaster, Mr. Mosier, Mr. Ballard, R. H. Van Cleve, and J. P. Albee, the pearl fisher. "A large number of these and many others who are interested in the work will undoubtedly attend the forthcoming session."

Program of the Day
The meeting will open with a morning session at Memorial Hall on the college campus at 11 o'clock. Dr. George L. Collie, acting president of Beloit College, will deliver the address of welcome and W. H. Ellsworth, president of the Wisconsin Archeological Society, the response.

The afternoon session will be opened at the chapel at two o'clock and will include the following attractive numbers:

1. Song in Dakota, by L. H. Riggs of Olathe, South Dakota.
2. Address, "The Antiquities of Beloit and Vicinity," by Dr. Stephen D. Peet, editor of the American Antiquarian.
3. Address, "Present Day Archeology," by Dr. Frederick Starr, Professor of Anthropology, University of Chicago.
4. "The Archeology of the Lake"

6. Inspection of the collections in the Logan museum and of the mounds preserved on the college campus.

Some Interesting Notes
Beloit College since its early foundation in 1847 has always taken a leading interest in Wisconsin antiquities.

In an early day it set an excellent example in the direction of the preservation of local mounds.

Dr. S. P. Lathrop in 1852 assisted Dr. I. A. Lapham in his valuable work by contributing surveys and plans of several of the local mound groups.

Dr. S. D. Peet while a student at Beloit laid the foundation of his later successful work in the Wisconsin field.

The archeological collections in Logan museum at Beloit college number about 15,000 specimens and are said to surpass in extent and value any public collections in our state. Since 1900, Mr. Frank G. Logan has expended over $10,000 in adding to these. They are alone worth a long journey to see.

Beloit is the only institution in Wisconsin offering a course in American archeology.

Dr. Frederick Starr, who will speak, is one of the most distinguished of American anthropologists. He has conducted valuable explorations and researches in every part of America and elsewhere. Recently he made extended studies among the Congo river tribes in Africa.

The Wisconsin Archeological Society has nearly 700 members. Many of these, with their guests from all parts of Wisconsin, will attend the Assembly.

Mr. Riggs, who will sing several Dakota songs, is a son of Rev. J. S. Riggs, for many years a noted missionary among the Sioux.

Pye of Clinton Will Catch and Wendt Will Play Right Field—New Uniforms.

Janesville's baseball team has been strengthened for tomorrow's game at the fair grounds, the Peconia, Ill., club having been scheduled. This nine is the strongest that played here last year and the rivalry which exists between them and the locals assures a hard fought contest. Pye will catch for the Bower City club and Wendt occupy the right garden. Schmidt will pitch and the remainder of the lineup be as follows: 1b, Ward; 2b, Consey; ss, Place; 3b, Keri; lf, Hutchinson; cf, Dunwiddie; substitute, Dee. When the locals go onto the field tomorrow they will be garbed in new black uniforms, white caps and white socks.

NO STANDING ROOM WILL BE ON SALE

But Nine Hundred and Fifty Tickets Have Been Issued for Each Night of Commencement.

No standing room will be sold for the graduating exercises in the high school auditorium next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The main floor and balcony will seat nine hundred and ninety tickets and only that number of tickets has been issued for each night. The members of the Senior class have been given entire charge of the sale and no tickets will be sold at the door unless the graduates fail to sell them beforehand, which is very unlikely. Tickets for Wednesday, play night, are of course in greatest demand. The parents of the graduates are assured seats, each member of the class having been given nine reserved seat tickets for the three evenings.

CHURCH GROWTH
VERY PLEASING

ENGLISH LUTHERANS HAVE PROSPERED DURING PAST YEAR.

OFFICERS OF CONFERENCES

Elections Held Yesterday Afternoon—
Addresses on Foreign Missionary Work.

Success has crowned the work of the English Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Northwest during the past year. The growth of the society has been very healthy and decidedly pleasing to those within the church. The committee on statistics and parochial reports presented its findings to the synod convention, now in session at St. Peter's church. The report is for the year beginning with Whit Sunday (June 3), 1906, and ending with Whit Sunday (May 19), 1907. It shows that the number of pastors in the synod has increased from 27 to 29; the number of congregations from 31 to 34; the number of church buildings from 21 to 22; the total valuation of church property from $204,225 to $228,320; the membership from 4,572 to 5,000; the baptized membership from 7,623 to 9,532; Sunday School teachers and officers from 422 to 472 and Sunday School scholars from 4,307 to 4,588. The total contributions for the past year amount to $49,913.68.

Two Conferences Elect
In connection with the synod meeting the organizations of two subdivisions, the Eastern and Central divisions, elected officers. Both bodies re-elected last year's officials. The Eastern Conference, which consists of all the Wisconsin churches but one, chose Rev. W. K. Frick, D. D., of Milwaukee for president, Rev. P. E. Baizer of Kenosha for secretary-treasurer, and James Harris of Platteville for lay member of the executive committee. The Central Conference, which has jurisdiction in Minnesota, the two Dakotas and a portion of Canada, named Rev. G. H. Trabert, D. D., of Minneapolis for president, Rev. Willis Beck of Zumbrota, Minn., for secretary-treasurer, and Judge A. Holt of Minneapolis for lay member of the executive committee. These officers comprise the executive committee of the synod.

Foreign Fields

Foreign Missions were discussed in two addresses last evening. Rev. A. F. Elmquist, Ph. D., of St. John's church, Minneapolis, spoke on India, where the English Lutherans put forth their greatest efforts. In old testament times, he said, the Israelites were the missionaries, in new testament times the apostles of Christ, and today the church of God, its members, pastors and called missionaries, to accomplish their purpose all these must have an unlimited love for the work, a belief in themselves and God and a willingness to sacrifice. The seed which must be sown is the Word of God, which is the Bible, and the holy spirit, which is the life-giving principle of the sacred book. The field open to missionaries is the world. The Lord having commanded that we sow before all waters, that we send teachers to all nations. This the English Lutheran church is endeavoring to do and has begun in India. The fruit of missionary labors is the lessons in our satisfaction of duty done, in the salvation of souls and in the benedictions and blessings that God gives his faithful servants.

Interesting Statistics

Following Mr. Elmquist on the program, Rev. William Elert of Racine dealt with the mission problem, which he said was twofold—to get the heathen interested in Christianity and to get the Christians interested in the heathen. One of the greatest difficulties in the foreign mission field is the size of the population, Africa having twice as many inhabitants as the United States, India three times as many and China four. In the United States there is a missionary for every fifty persons, but in Africa there is one for every 18,000 and in India one every 60,000. In this country there is one ordained missionary for every 740 souls but in the heathen world there is one ordained worker for every 200,000. Other great difficulties that missionaries have are: becoming acquainted with national customs, learning the language and becoming acclimated. The illiteracy and barbarity of the heathen peoples also hinder progress. In India ninety per cent of the women over twenty-five years of age can neither read nor write and all manner of insensate cruelties are inflicted upon patients by the native doctors. The remedies for these two difficulties are the establishment of schools and the sending of medical men from America. At present, the heathen lands there are 94 universities and colleges with an enrollment of 25,500 students, 90 per cent of which is male; 375 training schools with 1,200 students; 20,000 elementary schools with 1,000,000 scholars. At present there is but one medical doctor for every 2,000,000 population in China, while New York City alone contains 3,500 physicians and surgeons. The contributions that America makes for foreign missions are small. The United States spends five times as much for kid gloves and ostrich feathers, 40 times as much for amusements, 40 times as much for dogs and 400 times as much for tobacco and liquor.

COMMENCEMENT AT
EVANSVILLE SCHOOL

"The Sweet Girl Graduate" Well Acted by Graduates—Class Day Exercises Interesting.

Evansville, June 7.—The class day exercises drew a large audience last evening, the opera-house being crowded to its capacity. The play, "The Sweet Girl Graduate," was very entertaining and the class deserves much praise, each one acting their part in a most creditable manner.

Mrs. Florence Brown played the part of "The Sweet Girl" and portrayed the trials and tribulations of the girl graduate. Miss Ruth Winston took the part of her mother who was stricken with nervous prostration and lived in constant fear of having another "attack" owing to the worry. Lester Bullard represented her father, who was president of the R. I. P. railroad and was determined that his daughter should have the prettiest frock and Erwin Winter played the part of her beau and gave advice and numerous suggestions. Cella Keylock portrayed her Old Maid Aunt, "who never graduated, thank heaven." Emma Kuelz was her dearest friend and Pearl Heffel her much worried and last suffering dressmaker. Lella Shreve, her accomplished music teacher, spent much time and patience drilling her, while Alex. Richardson acted as principal of the school, Elmore Bourbonau the florist and Alice Murray her maid. The class poem was given by Lenah Day and Lola M. Acheson rendered a fine piano solo. The program closed with the class song.

On Tuesday, June 11, Miss Maggie Gillies will leave for a trip to Europe. She will stop in New York city for a short visit with Mrs. J. A. Gillies Johnson and on June 13 will sail for Naples. She will spend the greater part of the summer in Italy and France and expects early in the fall to reach Scotland, where she will visit relatives. She expects to be absent several months and possibly a year. She will be accompanied by Miss Daisy Buckridge of Beloit.

There was an unusually large attendance at the meeting of the Congregational Missionary society at the home of Mrs. H. D. Morgan yesterday afternoon. The rooms and tables were elaborately decorated with flowers, flowering plants and ferns. At 5:30 supper was served, covers being laid for thirty-two. The fact that the day happened to be the seventy-third birthday anniversary of one of their oldest members, Mrs. Samuel Cleland, added much pleasure to the occasion.

Last Tuesday evening Miss Corn Carpenter entertained the Grange employees in honor of Miss Rose, who expects soon to return to her home in Oshkosh.

Miss Edith Benway, who has been in Chicago for some time fitting herself for a trained nurse, to gain a crown in glory, but to win a diadem on the battlefield where so many are engaged in an unequal struggle for the mastery.

The sunny disposition, which the old lady craved, is a choice inheritance, yet accessible to all of us. When it becomes the prevailing disposition the world will be bright with joy and gladness.

"WHAT'S THE USE" of paying twice as much for your dental work as is necessary?

By going to Dr. Richards you can get the very finest grade of work obtainable in the city and his prices don't jar you.

Just this morning one of his patients said he had inquired elsewhere and by having Dr. Richards do the work he had saved just $15.50 on the job.

It was no cut rate business, either. Just his regular prices for good honest dental work.

In these days of high living expenses wouldn't it be wise of your part to see Dr. Richards about your needed dental work?

ALL OUT FOR THE MASS MEETING!

QUESTION OF A FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.

WILL BE DECIDED MONDAY

Sentiment in Favor of the Revival of Carnival Seems to be General But Must Be Backed by Action.

Janesville had its Nonesuch Bros. burlesque circus parade which carried the city's name to two oceans and back again and caused every pilgrim who had ever sojourned here to steal, beg, or borrow if necessary to get back here on July 4—originated and fostered this wonderful carnival long before the "Homecomings" which other cities are vying one another in boasting were ever thought of.

But it has required great effort on the part of a public spirited few to make successes of these big institutions in the past and last year everybody took a rest. With another Independence Day looming up in the near offing, the question has arisen as to whether more than a few can be induced to undertake the task of reviving the great festivities and adding another red letter day to the memorable ones in the history of the town.

There are obstacles. George McKee, while willing to devote his ingenuity and resources to the task, has made arrangements to be out of the city previous to the Fourth, and there are doubtless several others whose help would be indispensable who may not be here. Nevertheless the committee which interviewed the merchant yesterday found that the sentiment was general in favor of a rousing celebration and that they were willing to back the sentiment with good, hard cash—which is the main thing. There should be a big attendance at the mass meeting at the city hall Monday evening. Those who stay away in order to permit the other fellow to do the work, will have no ground for complaint, no matter what the decision reached may be.

SYNOD SESSION TO END MONDAY

NO ADJOURNMENT OF BUSINESS MEETINGS WILL BE TAKEN TODAY.

BOAT RIDE FOR DELEGATES

Local Church Entertained Visiting Clergymen and Lay Representatives.

No sine die adjournment will be taken by the English Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Northwest until Monday, it having been decided at the session this morning that the convention business could not be concluded today. Much business was transacted this morning and a short session was held this afternoon. The next meeting will be held Monday morning at nine, though special services have been planned for tomorrow, including the ordination of Rev. O. S. Yenger of Trinity church, West St. Paul and sermon by Rev. G. H. Traber, D. D., of Minneapolis at ten-thirty in the morning and a sermon on education by Prof. G. H. Gerberding, D. D., of Chicago in the evening at eight o'clock.

Up-river Excursion. This afternoon delegates, both clerical and lay, are being entertained at an up-river excursion. The local church engaged the steamer "City Bell" for the occasion and the visitors are being shown the beauties of the river Rock.

Donation to Seminary. One of the most important measures passed this morning was an order for a contribution from the synod to the Lutheran Theological seminary at Chicago. The resolution called for a donation larger, if possible, than that of last year, which was $1,700.

LOT SALE THAT IS SELLING THE LOTS

Easy Terms Catch the Public's Fancy and Much Interest is Shown.

That the sale of lots on easy terms of one dollar down and fifty cents per week as offered in the Lenox Addition on Mineral Point and Highland avenues in the First ward, is popular, is demonstrated by the quick selling which is taking place so far today. Nothing has ever equaled in this city the rapidity with which lots have sold. The delightful location of the property and the wonderfully easy terms of purchase and payment are responsible. 50 of the lots were disposed of this morning but there are plenty of good ones left for those who have been unable to visit the addition for purchase today.

One of the very nice features of the Lenox Addition is the alley which has been provided at the rear of each lot. It is one which will appeal to many prospective buyers. The fact that all water and gas mains, as well as telephone poles, etc., will be run through these alley ways in place of through the streets in front of your property is an advantage to be appreciated in years to come.

Lots offered are full size 50x125 feet and so easy of access, being but a few blocks from the street car line on Mineral Point avenue that the home builder will have no trouble in getting to and from the city. Tomorrow all day there will be salesmen on the ground to accommodate those who cannot visit the addition week days. There is no interest, no taxes, and no mortgage to be paid, neither are you required to make payments if you are taken ill. You are assured a perfect title and warranty deed, as the Lenox plat is recorded in Plat Book number 7, page 20, in the records of Rock county.

We would suggest your being on hand early tomorrow to make the best selection, as we look for a very generous patronage.

Pleasant View Addition. Walk out Pleasant street. It is only a short walk from business portion of town, and see our fine lots.

Good plumbing in the kitchen is a matter of great importance because your health depends on the sanitary conditions existing in this room where all food is prepared. Old fashioned sinks with closed-in piping are lodging places for vermin, moisture and dirt which bring about serious illness.

A MAKER OF HISTORY

CHAPTER XXXV.

THREE men were the sole occupants of the great room whose windows looked out upon the Louvre. The table around which they were seated was strewn with papers and maps. The door of the room was locked, and a sentry stood outside in the passage. The three men were busy making history.

The man who occupied the seat at the head of the table was the M. Grisson, to whom Guy Poyatou, at the instigation of the Duc de Bergille, had told his story. It was he who was spokesman.

"The situation," he said, "is one which bristles with difficulties. We will assume for a moment the truth of what we have certainly reasonable ground to believe. Russia has shown every sign of disappointment with us for our general attitude during the war. Our understanding with England has provoked a vigorous though unofficial protest from her representatives here. Since then our relations have become to a certain extent strained. Germany, ever on the lookout for complications which might lead to her own advantage, steps in. Her attitude toward Russia is changed to one of open and profound sympathy. Russia in her desperate straits rises like a starving fish to a fat fly. Here it is that our secret service steps in."

"Our secret service—and her allies," one of the other men murmured. "Exactly! We pass now into the consideration of facts which need one thing only to justify our course of action. Evidence is brought to us that a secret meeting took place between the czar of Russia and the emperor of Germany. From all the information which we have collected that meeting was possible. I personally believe that it took place. A treaty is said to have been drawn up between them having for its object the embroilment of England with Russia and alliance of Germany with Russia so far as regards her quarrel with England. We know that Germany is secretly mobilizing men and ships."

"We know that the ambition of the emperor is to possess himself of the colonies of Great Britain, it not actually to hold his court in London. We know that his jealousy of King Edward amounts to a disease. We know that he is a man of daring and violent temper, with an indomitable will and an unflinching belief in his own infallibility and the infallibility of his army and navy. We know that he has at least a dozen schemes for a sudden attack upon England, and mightily though the navy of Great Britain is, it is not in our opinion strong enough to protect her shore from the combined Baltic and German fleets and also protect her colonies. England, through our friendship, has been warned. She proposes, with most flattering alacrity the only possible counter stroke—an alliance with ourselves. We must decide within twelve hours. The treaty lies upon my desk there. Upon us must rest the most momentous decision which any Frenchman within our recollection has been called upon to make. What have you to say, gentlemen?"

There was a short silence. Then the man who sat at M. Grisson's right hand spoke.

"The issues before us," he said slowly, "are appalling. Every Frenchman's blood must boil at the thought of Germany greedily helping herself to the mighty wealth and power of Great Britain—becoming by this single master stroke the strongest nation on earth, able to dictate even to us and to send her word unchallenged throughout the world. It is a hideous picture. It must mean the abandonment forever of the hope of every true Frenchman. Every minute will become a menace to us. Wilhelm, the arrogant, with British gold and British ships at his back, will never forget to flaunt himself before us to our eternal humiliation."

"You are taking it for granted," his neighbor remarked, "that Germany will be successful."

"The odds are in her favor," was the quiet reply. "The navy of Great Britain is immense, but her sea front, so to speak, is enormous. She is open to be the prey of a sudden swift attack, and the moment has never been more favorable."

"Let all these things be granted," the third man said. "Even then are we free to enter into this alliance with England? Our treaty with Russia remains. We have no proof that she has broken faith with us. If this secret treaty between Russia and Germany really exists it is of course another matter. But does it? We have nothing but the word of an English boy. The rest is all assumption. The whole affair might be a nightmare. We might sign this treaty with England and find afterward that we had been the victim of a trick. We should be perjured before the face of all Europe, and our great financial interests in Russia would at once be placed in a perilous position."

A telephone upon the table rang softly. M. Grisson held the receiver to his ear and listened. Then he rose to his feet.

"Count von Munchen desires a word with me," he announced. "He pledges himself not to keep me more than five minutes. I had better receive him. Excuse me, gentlemen."

The two men were left alone. The elderly and stouter of the two busied himself with an inch rule and an atlas. He seemed to be making calculations as to the distance between Cherbourg and a certain spot in the North sea.

"What is the chief's own mind?" his companion asked. "Does any one know?"

The other shook his head. "Who can say? Our ties of friendship with England are too recent to make this a matter of sentiment. I believe that without proof he fears to accept this statement. And yet above all things he fears Germany. There was some talk of a missing page of the actual treaty between Russia and Germany. If this could be found I believe that he would sign the draft treaty."

"I myself," the other said, "do not believe that England would be so easily overpowered."

"It is the suddenness and treachery of the attack which counts so greatly in its favor," his companion said. "It might be all over in two days before she could assemble a fifth part of her forces. If our information is correct Germany has men enough mobilized to run huge risks. Besides, you know how Lafarge's report ran and what he said. The German army is beginning to suffer from a sort of dry rot, as must all institutions which fulfill a different purpose than that for which they exist. The emperor knows it. If war does not come Germany will have to face severe military troubles."

"I myself am for the alliance."

"And I," the other replied, "if proof of this Germano-Russian understanding could be produced."

M. Grisson returned. He carefully closed and locked the door behind him. "Gentlemen," he said, "the German ambassador has just left me. His mission in every way confirms our secret information. He has been instructed to inquire as to our attitude in the event of any British interference with the Baltic fleet while in home waters."

The two men looked up expectantly. M. Grisson continued.

"I replied that it was a contingency which we scarcely thought it worth while to consider. I expressed my firm belief that England would observe all the conventions written and understood of international law."

"And he?"

"He was not satisfied, of course. He declared that he had certain information that England was making definite plans with a view to insure the delay of the fleet. He went on to say that Germany was determined not to tolerate any such thing, and he concluded that we, as Russia's ally, would at any rate remain neutral should Germany think it her duty to interfere."

"And your reply?"

"I answered that in the event of untoward happenings France would act as her honor dictated, retaining always mindful of the obligations of her alliance. He was quite satisfied."

"He had no suspicion of this?" the young man asked, touching the treaty with his forefinger.

"None. It is believed in Germany that the young Englishman was really found drowned in the Seine after a short career of dissipation. Our friends served us well here. Now, gentlemen, the English ambassador will be here in twenty minutes. What am I to say to him? Do we sign this draft agreement or do we not?"

There was a silence which lasted nearly a minute. Then the younger of the two men spoke.

The English wife of a Chinese "magician" summoned him for desertion. He explained that she had grown so stout that it was now impossible for him to perform his trick of turning her into a duck.

Secret Remedies Prohibited.

Two of the cantons of Switzerland—the Valais and Jessin—entirely prohibit the advertising and sale of secret remedies.

Nervous Indigestion

The action of digestion is controlled by nerves leading to the stomach. When they are weak, the stomach is deprived of its energy. It has no power to do its work. If you want permanent relief, you must restore this energy. Dr. Miles' Nerve restores nervous energy, and gives the organs power to perform their functions.

"For many years I was an acute sufferer from nervous indigestion; at times I was so despondent life seemed almost a burden. I tried all kinds of remedies and various physicians with little or no relief, until one night last summer I saw Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure advertised. I resolved to make one more trial which I did in the purchase of one bottle of Nerve and one of Heart Cure. In a few days I began to feel better, which encouraged me so much that I continued the medicine until I had taken more than a dozen bottles. I am very much improved in every way; in body, mind and spirit since. I make a special point to recommend the medicine, and I feel a sincere pleasure in knowing that several persons have been benefited through my recommendations."

A. S. MELTON, Asheville, N. C.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

THE 10th WISCONSIN REGIMENT

It has often been wondered why the sick list of the 10th Wisconsin Infantry was so small, after facing the hardships and disease of the South during the Civil War, but the men of Company "C" knew the reason; they had been using a natural blood purifier known as prepared by their comrade, A. L. GRANGER, from roots and herbs. That same remedy that kept an entire regiment alive and well, is still being manufactured under the direction of its originator, and has proven to be the best blood purifier on the market.

"Only 3 1/2% of Alcohol"

The highest scientific and medical authorities in the world unite in declaring that the alcohol (about 3 1/2%) contained in a bottle of pure malt beer like is not enough to injure anyone, yet sufficient to naturally stimulate the regular flow of the gastric fluids within the stomach, so essential to the proper assimilation of solid foods.

Professor Dr. E. Straue, Berlin, Germany, says: "Owing to the small amount of alcohol in beer the same cannot be called an alcoholic beverage in the usual sense of these words."

Peerless Beer is an effervescent wholesome and fully matured beer of commanding superiority. Because of this it received the Gold Medal at St. Louis Exposition in 1904 and at Paris in 1900. It is a sparkling amber beer with splendid fragrance, delightful, snappy flavor and creamy foam. It has been brewed for 50 years by the famous Gund Natural Process that preserves the life of the malt.

Peerless contains only the choicest ingredients—the essential tonic juices of fine Bohemian hops, special yeast of our own cultivation, water flowing from a well in granite rock and the malted extract of rich, plump and sound Northwestern barley. Bottled at the home plant only. Sold in all reputable hotels, cafes, restaurants, etc. Ask the man behind the bar, or buy a case delivered at your home. For family use no beer excels Peerless. OPENS NEW VISTA FOR YOUNG BOYS

THE CHILDREN OF JANESVILLE
TOPIC LAST NIGHT.

SHOWS THEM BETTER THINGS

Rev. Ullom Gives Them a Sterling
Talk—Tells What Churches
Should Do for Youth.

The children of the city were given a sermon by Rev. Ullom last evening at the Rink. The preacher was at his best as he talked to the youth of Janesville about reverence, honesty, purity and Christlikeness. No man serves a community better than he who directs the boys and girls in paths of righteousness and virtue. That Mr. Ullom has kept himself in the boy world is evident from the way he describes the boy heart and the boy life.

If the churches should give more time to the boys there would be fewer of them found in the saloons. An iron mill cannot run without ore any more than a saloon can run without boys. Upon the Sunday school superintendents and the parents of any city rests a tremendous responsibility. The unfortunate thing about it all is the fact that so few of those in positions of responsibility appreciate the opportunity afforded them. A boy started in the right way means a life devoted to good work, while a boy started in the wrong way means a failure, disappointment and misery. To start right one needs a good example such as is seen in the life of Jesus who was obedient and who grew in stature and in favor with God and with men.

There are a great many parents who have never risen to a proper appreciation of the dignity and the importance of the work God committed to them when he sent a child into their home. How it shall be clothed and fed or how it shall be trained, what traits shall be encouraged and what restrained are questions that never enter their minds. A colt or a pig is trained for something definite—for market or for burden-bearing. Not so with a child. It has something about it which differentiates it from the mere animal and upon the training of that something depends his eternal misery or his everlasting joy. Talk about high art. There is no higher art than that of child training. A flower such as Luther Burbank might spend months and years in bringing to a high state of development is not to be compared for one moment to that young bud of promise in your home.

To bring out all the possibilities of that young life and to train it for something noble is a task in which the angels of God might vie with each other in doing. But it has been given to you, fathers and mothers, and in doing the work assigned you have need of the church of the Sunday school, and of divine assistance.

Dr. Ullom will speak again this evening and on Sunday evening. Monday is rest day with these evangelists. Dr. Scoville will be here Tuesday evening. Mr. Smith requests that all the friends who will assist in the music will kindly come promptly to the platform. He desires a much larger company of singers for next week. Knowing something of the widespread interest in the meeting the Gazette turns prophet for the moment and sees large things in the near future for the good people of the city.

TWO EXHIBITIONS DESERVING PRAISE

Pupils of St. Patrick's School Give Two Entertainments on Thursday and Friday Evenings.

Pupils of St. Patrick's School on Thursday and Friday evenings of the past week gave two entertainments deserving of much praise. On Thursday two dramatic skits entitled "Sea of Trouble" and "Golden Spectacles," with songs and concert recitations, were given to a large audience. Last evening a second evening of entertainment was given which included Minute Gun at Sea by the pupils of the 6th, 7th and 8th grades, a Garland drill by the 5th Grade girls which was very dainty, a "Summer Lullaby" by the first and second grade girls, a pretty little musical treat which was well sung followed by the 6th, 7th and 8th Grade Boys in a song entitled "Night Winds from the Sea." The 5th Grade girls then gave a recitation entitled the "Owl Critic" and then came the play of the evening entitled "Coele," the prologue of which was given by Miss Marie Donohue. The story is an Indian one in three acts and was very charmingly rendered by the young people taking part. Martha Dooly was the heroine, Coalea; Josephine Sheridan, Aromatha; Gertrude Cassaday, Winona; Clara Garbutt, Eureka; Pearl Barry, Oramaka; Mary Nolan, Kawee; Francis Gibbs, Tony; Mattie Ryan, Sioussat; Clara Hall, Marie; Margaret Roherty, Kittie Mooney; Marie Donohue, Madam Beauville; John McDermott, Adheeka; Joe Gillespie, Tarrabee; Emmett Connors, Strakbeam; Charles McCaffrey, Piquit. Between the second and third acts a "Song of the Red Man" was delightfully given and careful thought and work. The pupils of the school deserve credit for the two evenings and the interested audiences which were present showed their appreciation with frequent applause.

We herewith produce the floor plans of a $3,000 house which has many unique features. The beautiful inge nook with its fireplace, bookshelves and seats, together with the living room affords a spacious living apartment. The stair case which so often occupies the most valuable part of a house, is located at the rear where it is conveniently connected to the living room and accessible from the kitchen, thus disposing of a separate back stair. The lavatory and coat closet in stair hall are conveniently located, while a butler's pantry is provided between the kitchen and dining room.

The second floor has a bath room and four bed rooms, each provided with a closet, utilizing every inch of space.
